Wiseman, Welfare League; and Dr. W. C. Woodward, Health Department.

To Suggest League.
Organization of a local branch of the National Social Welfare League to carry on the work started by Mr. Finch with the purpose of establishing the proposed factory will be suggested at the meeting. This plan is likely to be considered by the central committee at its meeting Tuesday. There is, however, a sentiment for a different method of coping with the situation.

Many of the workers are favoring the plan of the Florence Crittenton Mission, of which Mrs. Kahn is president. This latter plan calls for the establishment of several miles from Washington of a rural colony where the exiles may find rest and employment and undergo a general process of reclamation. Those who favor the plan seem to think it would attract more of the women than Mr. Finch's plan.

Despite contrary views, however, the welfare workers are determined to agree on some definite plan and are satisfied to leave the entire matter in charge of the central body named by the heads of the local government. Among those invited to occupy seats on the stage this afternoon were: District Commissioners Newman, Siddons and Harding, Cuno H. Rudolph, William F. Gude, Edward McLean, Theodore V. Noves, Charles F. Nesbit, the Rev. Wallace Radcliffe, Miss Margaret Wilson, Mrs. A. Birney, Mrs. Archibald Hopkins, Major Richard Sylvester, Mrs. Margaret D. Ellis, Mrs. Thatcher, Mrs. Wilbur F. Crafts, Mrs. Kate Walker Barrett, the Rev. John Van Schick, the Rev. U. G. B. Pierce, H. B. F. Macfarland, the Rev. Abram Simon, the Rev. Charles Woods, Mrs. Julian James, Mrs. Cope, Mrs. Shaw, the Rev. James Shera, Montgomery, the Rev. William Mallalieu, George S. Wilson, Mrs. Walter S. Ufford, William Knowles Cooper, Mrs. William Bailey, Mrs. Ellis Logan, Mrs. H. E. Monroe, Mrs. M. M. Westcott and Mrs. Fred T. Dubois.

Speaks at Tuxedo.
A large contingent of the residents of Tuxedo, Md., attended the meeting at the Christian Church of that place this morning, at which Mrs. Barrett spoke. Mrs. Barrett related her experience of many years with the women of the Washington segregated district. She urged that every one present co-operate with the central committee, appointed by the Commissioners, to meet the situation, and lauded Congress for the dignified manner in which it has permitted local social welfare workers to map out plans for the salvation of the women without "tooting their own horns" to impress the moral elements of their respective districts.

Mrs. Barrett will speak tonight at the Dumbarton M. E. Church on the crusade to provide for the underworld exiles. Tuesday at 11 o'clock Mrs. Barrett will address a meeting to be held at the Washington Club, 1201 I street northwest.

About $2,000 of the $25,000 fund with which the National Social Welfare League, of which Mr. Finch is the local agent, proposed to establish a factory wherein the women could obtain employment, has been raised. This money will be turned over to Cuno H. Rudolph, treasurer of the central committee. Mr. Finch declared today that about forty women of the district had already applied for work under the factory plan which he started out to develop.

Wins Kidnaped Wife; Whips First Husband

ROYAL OAK, Mich., Feb. 1.—William Moss and his wife are holding the fort in their home here against Walter Lownds, former husband of Mrs. Moss, who kidnapped her.

Led to believe that Moss had returned to work the Ford Motor Company plant, Lownds accompanied Mrs. Moss here the other day, ostensibly to obtain the woman's check. Lownds, who was on hand and administered a sound beating to Lownds, driving him from the premises and barricading the doors. Mrs. Moss declares Lownds has no claim upon her, although he insists that the decree divorcing him has been set aside in St. Louis.

Bomblike Box Found At Cornell Man's Door

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—Mrs. Mary Kronenberger, janitor of the apartment house at 322 Anderson avenue, the Bronx, stumbled over a small wooden box at the doorway of the apartment of Prof. Harold Eaton Riegger, of Cornell, early yesterday.

She found it was soaked with oil and that a fuse had burned to within two inches of it. She called a policeman, who took it to Highbridge station. It was kept in water until the bureau of combustibles took charge.

Porcupines Hinder the Baking of Biscuits

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—Jacob Dobinson, of Hanover, N. J., investigated when his wife complained she could make biscuits only before dawn and after dusk.

The chimney would draw only when it was dark. He tore the bricks out, shoved down his hand, and got it full of porcupine quills. With a plowhook he drew forth Mr. Porcupine. The chimney still bad, he hauled out two more.

THE GIANT AND THE LILLIPUTIANS

Accused of Killing Three, Blames Memory Lapse

JACKSONVILLE, Ill., Feb. 1.—John Henry, who is accused of killing three persons at Woodson last Tuesday night, and who returned home voluntarily Friday night, was placed in jail here today by Sheriff Rogers.

He says he suffered a lack of memory which covered the entire time of the crime and up to an indefinite hour Friday. When he came to himself he was in St. Louis. He telephoned his brother, Jeff Henry, in East St. Louis. While standing at the telephone, he saw newspaper headlines about a triple murder at Woodson. That being his home town, he read further, and was horrified to find that he was said to be the murderer.

About the Size of It.

Every now and then a woman as big as a truck horse marries a guy about the size of a cigarette, because she needs a protector.—Altoona Tribune.

She Had a Grievance.

"My husband throws things at me." "No, don't get a divorce over trifles." "It is no trifle! Some day he is going to hit the housemaid, and it is hard enough to keep servants without a complication of this kind."

Very Much in Love.

She—I must leave you here. I'm going to have a tooth extracted. He—Oh, I think I'll have one taken out, too.—Flegende Blatter.

Shepard Denies His Wife Will Buy in Railroad

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—Reports that Mrs. Helen Gould Shepard would buy the Wabash railroad, ordered sold under foreclosure, was today vigorously denied by Finley J. Shepard, her husband.

"Such a story is without foundation," Shepard said, through his secretary. "We know absolutely nothing about the reorganization of the Wabash. That's all I care to say."

The report was that Mrs. Shepard would buy in the Wabash to keep the property within the Gould family. Shepard, it was said, would run the railroad.

Might as Well.

"Chuck steak costs as much as tenderloin these days." "Terrible, isn't it?" "Well, we're getting one consolation out of it."

"What is that?" "We're eating tenderloin."—Kansas City Journal.

Search Being Made for Missing Bookkeeper

Search is being made by the police for Martin P. Cotter, twenty years old, last Monday from his home, 339 T street northwest.

Mr. Cotter was employed as bookkeeper at the Rudolph & West Co., and left home at the usual time Monday morning. He failed to appear at his place of employment, John A. Cotter, of Engine Company 1, a brother, has asked the police to send out an alarm for the missing man.

Municipal Saloon Success.

SISSISTON, S. D., Feb. 1.—The municipal saloon, taken over by the city when the council decided the city might as well get all the profits as well as the taxes, has proved an unqualified success, according to figures made public here today. The plan has turned out to be such a financial plum, that other towns nearby are contemplating adopting it.

EDUCATION

A desirable essential at all times. There is probably no line of merchandise it is so well to know about as the various food products we consume daily. With this thought in mind, we propose to present weekly in some of our stores each week, the various food products of daily consumption. This act in itself would not be complete if we did not also lend our services to a constant effort to reduce prices, placing quality food supplies within reach of all. This week's demonstration will be held at our store at 7th and H streets northeast. A visit will be appreciated by us.
